Company report

Investment Highlights

- We maintain our BUY recommendation, forecasts and value of RM6.35/share for Kumpulan PowerNet (KPN) based on the FY21 EPS. This is a discount to the net forward 24 PE of leading renewable energy players to reflect (1) KPN's relatively small market value, (2) its relatively low base case growth rate, (3) KPN's relatively high leverage, and (4) KPN's FY21 and FY22 expectations based on our top-down analysis.
- KPN has secured a 240MW final design and procurement, construction and commissioning contract for a 27.38MW mini hydro power project in Perak, with a construction period of 18 months.
- This latest contract has boosted KPN's FY21 and FY22 earnings estimates, and we have increased our FY21-22E (and FY23-24E) earnings estimates. We have also increased our FY21-22E (and FY23-24E) P/E ratios to reflect KPN's improved earnings estimates.
- We continue to reiterate a BUY recommendation on KPN's stock, as we believe KPN's growth rate will continue to outpace the market.
- At all times, we will continue to monitor KPN's performance and update our recommendation and target price as warranted.
